Appendix C – Declaration of gifts and hospitality form

1. General

This is the Trust's policy relating to the offer and/or acceptance by staff of gifts and hospitality of whatever nature from outside individuals or organisations.

Within the terms of the policy, staff, Trustees and governors are expected to exercise common sense. If they are in any doubt they must consult the Chief Executive Officer and in every case declare the acceptance of a gift or hospitality in the register kept by the Trust, using the Trust's 'Declaration of Gifts and Hospitality' form.

The process set out is designed to safeguard Trustees, governors and staff from any misunderstanding or criticism.

The general principles which govern gifts and hospitality are:-

- Offers of hospitality should only be accepted if there is a genuine need to represent the Trust.
- Gifts should only be accepted in exceptional circumstances.
- The Policy applies to all Trustees, governors, and staff of the Trust.
- To determine whether a gift or hospitality is acceptable, the 'PROVEIT' test should be applied by staff and referred to the Chief Executive Officer if in doubt. See Appendix A.
- Registers are accessible for viewing by the following appropriate officers: Chief Executive Officer, Headteachers, Trustees, Governors, Chief Finance Officer, External Auditors, and Responsible Officer.
- Any request by a member of the public to view the Register of Declarations of Gifts and Hospitality will be referred to the Chief Executive Officer. In considering any request, they will balance the requirement for the Trust to be open and transparent against the requirements of the Data Protection Act 1998.

2. Hospitality

The following principles should be followed in deciding whether or not to accept hospitality: -

- Staff and governors should ask themselves whether members of the public, knowing the facts of the situation, could reasonably think that they might be influenced by the hospitality offered. If the answer is yes, the hospitality should be declined. In making judgements, relevant facts to take into account include the person or organisation offering the hospitality, its scale and nature, and its timing in relation to decisions to be made by the Trust.
- Care should be taken to avoid situations in which an individual governor or member of staff is the sole person invited to partake of hospitality or where it creates a pattern of receiving hospitality from that organisation.

Examples of when it may be proper to accept hospitality (always depending upon the particular circumstances) are as follows:-

- Attendance at conferences, events and demonstrations of equipment organised by outside bodies where there is a service interest.
- Attendance at events or functions where there is a demonstrable need for the Trust to be represented to either give or to receive information or to participate as part of the trust's corporate image.
- Attendance at events or functions which are part of the civic, cultural or sporting life of the trust.

- Working lunches where this is an appropriate and effective way of conducting business and the refreshments provided are on a reasonable level.
- Overnight hospitality linked to any of the above should not be accepted.

3. Gifts

All personal gifts should be refused or donated to charity unless they come within the categories set out in 3.1 or 3.2 below.

3.1 Gifts of the following type may be accepted:-

- modest gifts of a promotional character, eg calendars, diaries and other similar articles. See also point 4; and
- gifts on the conclusion of any courtesy visit to an outside organisation of a sort normally given by that organisation.
- Gifts up to £25 in value

3.2 Gifts which are intended for the Trust as a corporate body or intended for a Trust can be accepted but must not be retained by the individual who receives them. Such gifts should be passed to the Trust as appropriate.

4. Registration of Gifts and Hospitality

Staff must, within 28 days of accepting any gift or hospitality, provide written notification to the Chief Executive Officer using the 'Declaration of Gifts and Hospitality' form. All offers accepted should be recorded in case of any queries, in particular through FOI requests.

The Declaration of Gifts and Hospitality forms must be completed in full, setting out full details of the offer or the gift and or hospitality received as well as:

- estimated or actual value;
- an indication from the Chief Executive Officer as to why acceptance of the offer is authorised;
- the employee's / Trustees /governor's printed full name (not typed) and signature; and
- the Chief Executive Officer's printed full name (not typed) and signature.

5. Monitoring

The Trust maintains a register of gifts and hospitality accepted.

If there are no declarations of gift/hospitality, a nil return should be made. The pro-forma, detailing the individual declarations, and nil returns should be obtained. Copies of these forms should be attached to the annual declaration that confirms that the Register is up to date.

The Trust monitors the Register annually and reports the outcome to the Finance and Audit Committee. Any concerns/issues identified should be noted and an action plan put in place.

6. Penalties for breaching the Policy

The Trust's disciplinary procedures may be applied where it is found that breaches of the Policy have occurred.

7. Board of Trustees – Monitoring of the Policy

As part of its role in promoting high standards of conduct, the Board of Trustees will receive annual reports on the monitoring of the Policy.

8. Retention of Documentation

Documentation in the Register will be kept for seven years.

APPENDIX A

Managing the Receipt of Gifts and Hospitality

The PROVEIT test:

Whether or not the offer is acceptable:

Purpose	Token, thanks or seeking a favour? (token or thanks: yes; favour: no)
Rules	What are they? Does this situation conform?
Openness	Is the offer transparent?
Value	Expensive or inexpensive?
Ethics	Does the offer fit with trust ethics? Is this an exceptional circumstance?
Identity	Who has made the offer?
Timing	Are you about to make a decision affecting the giver?

APPENDIX B

Gifts from one employee to another employee within the organisation

From time to time gifts of thanks/sympathy/other may be given by one individual within the organisation to another within the organisation. For example, box of chocolates/flowers. All such gifts/gestures should be agreed in accordance with the Headteacher.
